Ciellem Five gives you five all-in-one applications: a calculator, a text editor, a Google and YouTube search tool, and a launcher for the command line. All applications are highly configurable, for example you can easily change the interface of each application to match your taste. Each application runs in a separate window, so you can have many windows open at the same time. The calculator offers common mathematical functions, while the text editor is a simple, easy-to-use and comfortable to use application, which can be used as a basic text editor, if you like. The text editor allows you to use syntax highlighting to display code. The launcher is a simple tool to run system commands from the command line. You can get Ciellem Five by searching for "ciellem-five" in Google Play. Ciellem Five Screenshots: Ciellem Three contains everything you need to keep your life organized.
