Mood Tracking for iPad & iPhone. Clear, easy-to-use reporting. Beautiful graphics. The first and only app designed to help you track your moods every day. The Chimemeter. You can't miss it. Read the signboards. Not just in a museum. Mood Tracker tracks your moods every day and gives you clear, easy to understand visual reports of your day. You can even earn badges for your moods as you go. Each day Mood Tracker assigns a mood- and mood-label for each of the four days. It is quick and easy to assign a rating to each day's mood. On the same day, you can always see a rich graphical report of your moods over the previous week. The graphs are shown over the last seven days, along with the current day's graph. No need to reconstruct a previous day's graph. If you want a more extended view of moods over the previous month, this is also possible. You can see each days graph, with the mood- and mood-labels, for every day of the month. A tiny, yet powerful feature -- the Chimemeter. It's easy to see the days when you had a bad day. When you are satisfied with your daily mood report, you can transfer it to a clipboard, where you can use it for reference. If you do not want to record your moods daily, but on a weekly basis, Mood Tracker works perfectly for this purpose. It is very easy to assign a weekly mood-label for each day, week after week. A new graph for the days of a week, with a new label for the week, is created each time you complete a new week of moods. You can also see a histogram on the previous weeks over the previous months. This shows the total mood-labels assigned to the previous months. Mood Tracker creates beautiful graphics that are suitable for any mood-tracker app. If you know another Mood-Tracker with different graphics, or other features, please contact us! Mood Tracking is free. The rest of the features will be available for purchase. What's New: Bug Fixes and other improvements. Version 2.8.2: Fixes a bug that caused the clock to disappear from the notification area if the user wished for the clock to be hidden from the dock. Introduces a new feature for the history that lets you access the state of the app from 09e8f5149f

HGH Supplements Tracker Crack+

HGH Supplements Tracker is a handy solution that helps you keep an eye on the list of HGH supplements that you are prescribed with, by writing down the beneficial and side effects(if any) of each pill. By doing so, you are able to find out which supplements caused your symptoms, if any occurred. While the HGH(human growth hormone) protein is still not fully understood, since its complex chemical structure and genetic impact, it is important to write down any dosage and symptoms that might occur when administering this supplement. HGH Supplements Tracker enables you to create advanced reports that show the efficiency of a medicine, based on the ratings and physiological measurements you have logged. All data can be exported to CSV files, meaning that you can share it with a specialist, who can adjust your dosage accordingly. All in all, HGH Supplements Tracker provides you with a convenient way to create virtual medical reports regarding human growth hormone supplements, complete with notes about symptoms, whether they are beneficial or have a negative effect on your body.
