FIGS. 1 and 2 are block diagrams illustrating solid state imaging devices of the prior art. Both circuits are formed as CMOS circuits and comprise a photo-diode array 1, a charge coupled device 2 (CCD) and a latch circuit 3. The output of the photo-diode array 1 is sent to the input of the charge coupled device 2. The input of the charge coupled device 2 is connected to an output of the latch circuit 3. Now in FIGS. 1 and 2, the signals output from the photo-diode array 1 have been shown as X.sub.p to X.sub.n, and Y.sub.p to Y.sub.n. The signals X.sub.p to X.sub.n are latched in the latch circuit 3 to store image signals and be output as output signals X.sub.l to X.sub.m. If the signals X.sub.p to X.sub.n of the photo-diode array 1 are set in the value, -a and -b, respectively, in the time sequence a to b in FIG. 2, the charge corresponding to the positive input of the charge coupled device 2 is stored as a signal X.sub.p and the charge corresponding to the negative input is stored as a signal X.sub.n. The signals X.sub.p to X.sub.n of the photo-diode array 1 have the following relation: $X_{sub.p} < X_{sub.n}$ In case of a divided photo diode array, the

The goal of the game is to collect items to make the main character's chest fill with treasure. The main character has to do this to get the "key to the magical world" of Treasures. Yukiteru is walking through a forest when he meets, Fuu, a strange woman who claims to be his sister. She gives him a key to open a chest with magic treasure in it. The only catch is, there is a warlock looking for the key and anyone who finds it will become a true "god". Yukiteru has to collect five of the gods to defeat him. Yukiteru picks up the key and heads home. He is wondering what he should do next when he meets a weird old woman. She then is attacked by a shadow demon. Yui, Yukiteru's sword, has a great feeling for one of the shards. Yukiteru has to go get it, but the demon attacks first. The demon manages to escape and she tells him that he has to get more gods to become a true god. So Yukiteru decides to go home and collect them. Every time Yukiteru collects a god, they will give him an item for his magic. After all five gods are collected, he will get the key. Yukiteru then goes to the village and meets a well-known young man who is working as a priest. After talking to him for some time, he gets a new item for his magic, too. After that, there is only one last person left to find. Yukiteru heads home and tells Fuu of his plans. However, she tells him that he'll never make it. He will need to go seek help from somebody else. Yukiteru decides to ask the old well-known man for help. Thoughts On Silver Chaos If you were to try and explain the story of this game, it might be as easy as saying "boy meets girl, they end up together and get robbed". Though, that wouldn't
