Tweak Ctrl+Alt+Del Options Tool is a portable program that enables users to customize the options shown when the Ctrl+Alt+Del key combination is triggered. Since installation is not a requirement, you can drop the executable file to any location on the hard disk and just click it to run. There is also the possibility of saving Tweak Ctrl+Alt+Del Options Tool to a USB flash disk or similar storage unit, in order to use it on any computer with minimum effort and no prior installers. An important factor to take into account is that no new entries are added to the Windows registry or Start menu, leaving the HDD clean after program removal. The interface is represented by a standard window with a simple and intuitive layout, where you can disable the options to lock the PC, switch to another user, log off, change the password, and Task Manager. All changes can be applied with the click of a button. There is no option to restore all settings to their default parameters, but this can be easily done by deselecting everything and committing the new modifications. The software utility runs on a very low amount of CPU and RAM, so it does not affect the computer's overall performance. It has a good response time and works well, without causing the OS to hang, crash or display error messages. On second thought, we should be delighted. Every Republican should be welcomed into the party with open arms. If this is the year they will embrace Latinos, then I welcome every single one of them with open arms. Let's take a look at who we're talking about. Sen. Marco Rubio of Florida, an idea whose time has long passed. What, did you think this was going to work for you? For your little, white, Cajun, xenophobic, toothed, gun-toting, beer drinking, bottom-feeding, backwards, unpatriotic, people like you? The idea that we have to pretend these people are welcome in our party is a disgrace, and I hope to God that when the elections are over we have the good sense to boot every last one of them out. We can't be have any more Republicans in the party than we can afford to lose. You won't listen, Senator
