SHINORUBI (Shinobi in Japanese) is a Bullet hell style game up in the tradition of Japanese Danmaku games. SHINORUBI offers a fast-paced arcade action pack with great replayability thanks to the many available difficulty levels, arrange modes, different spaceships, online leaderboards and achievements. This is also one of a rarest vertical shooter entirely designed and optimized for widescreen monitor! #1 Rule: Only the very centre of the player's craft is vulnerable to enemy fire. You better avoid the mass of bullets aiming at you and destroy everything between you and your mission. CLASSIC/ORIGINAL MODE Complete all 5 levels with 3 starting lives to pass the 1CC (credit clear) challenge. You may add a few credits to help you to finish the game. 5 difficulty levels, including the easy mode with auto-bomb, or enemy shoots being canceled if you manage to destroy the shooter. BOSS RUSH MODE Fight only Bosses! Choose from 3 levels of difficulty. SCORING SYSTEM The scoring system is based on several parameters that provide you with point multipliers. Survive the barrage of enemy fire, destroy your enemies and collect stars and medals. All this while using your bombs as little as possible. WORLDWIDE LEADERBOARD & ACHIEVEMENTS A world wide leaderboard for each game modes, a personal leaderboard with all your scores per mode, and Steam Achievements. FEVER When your FEVER charge bar is full, it automatically triggers to cancel enemy shots on screen and improve your points. The side effects are boosted weaponry and improved bonus stars when you destroy your enemies. CONTROLS AND DISPLAY You can play SHINORUBI using a keyboard, a joystick, or an arcade controller, Steam Remote Play, and customize all the action buttons. Made with an in-house super optimized, multi-threaded engine, this is not your average 2D shoot them up, it is a full grade PC game optimized, in Ultra HD, with uncapped frame-rate support, super resolution support and 8K textures, That's why an Direct3D API Level 11 video card or Vulkan 1.1 is required. Same game levels as the classic mode but with different rules. SHIELD: Use a shield to protect against the enemy bullets. CANCEL: Destroy marked spaceships to clear all

Wild Dogs Crack + Free [Updated-2022]

The Copper Dragons is a classic fantasy race and an unlikely threat to the worlds major races. The Copper Dragons are a humanoid race of Copper Dragon Bovines with a strong and brave base race. They have a strong sense of direction and loyalty, but have poor hearing and vision. An individual copper dragon can normally only sense two other people in an area that is 2,000 feet from their position. Copper Dragons can only ever have one offspring at a time. They are a naïve and unskilled folk, so do not use the fighting arts. They use their bovine strength in close combat, and use their heads for ranged weapons. Releasing on April 04, 2017, Fantasy Grounds is a classic battle system, allowing you to simulate your characters, encounters and enemies in a three dimensional fantasy setting, or your town as you wish. Fantasy Grounds has proven itself as the most popular game system in the world, being used by a large number of games, as well as many books. Fantasy Grounds 3.2.2 or higher is required for the Custom Content. NOTE: This is the Custom Content for the award winning Fantasy Grounds: Advanced Edition which has won "Game of the Year" by Dungeon

Magazine four times. Recommended for those who like the flavour of the Copper Dragons. ENJOY!

What's new in Wild Dogs:

Announcement! POSTED ON WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7th, 2016 at 6:00 AM. Update: I'm still tweaking the track order, but I've finally got it set out. Hey, y'all! The soundtrack to Wild Hunt is going to drop, and my OST contributions are going to be spread throughout it! I'm going to have a few tracks on each disc, some as mini-epics, and others as stand-alone little tunes. I'm going to try to give a shout-out to every one of my more prominent and notable songs, as well as throw in a few surprises along the way. Like that hit song you've been singing for years? Well, you're gonna see it featured here! Now, if you'll get off of ME and let me get to the good stuff... PRELUDE - Cloud R.I.P.: In case you didn't know, this song came out right when my son was about to enter his 2nd year of life. "Prelude" was (and is) an insidious sleeper with full pop potential. Which is why I named it "Prelude", "Cloud R.I.P.". Anyway, "Prelude" has an aggressive lead-in guitar lick, a good bass lick, strong snare drum, an absolutely amazing cowbell, and then, of course, a great cowbell solo by my good friend Skidz. This song was inspired by watching the news the night before shooting this scene. "THE HUMAN TEMPLE PLAYS THE PARADA (THE SWORD STRINGED MUSIC PLAYS AWAY)" - This song was destined to be a bossa nova-type of thing. And it might be the most planned and calculated bossa-style song I've ever written. The only song I've ever written that kind of bridged the two genres this way. To describe the song's context, I would have to describe the scene, and I think it makes it much better to describe the whole thing with just one song. If you haven't heard it yet (and you're not a head-scratcher), you can check it out here:
