What I am trying to do is have the user pick a date, and create a query to find any events that take place between the user picked date and the current date. I created the following query: select [eventTime] from Events where [eventTime] between select "" + DateTime.Now().ToString(@"MM/dd/yyyy") + "" and getdate() but the query returns no results. Is there something wrong with this? A: You need to format the DateTime.Now() as per string.Format(...) Current Date and Time: string.Format("{0:MM/dd/yyyy hh:mm}", DateTime.Now) To get around the technicality of string interpolation, I can suggest using following T-SQL: select [eventTime] from Events where [eventTime] between
