"The Marketplace of Ideas: The New Michigan Public School Choice Law," signed by Gov. Rick Snyder last week, will expand the use of private schools by students who want more "nonsectarian and less religious" options in Detroit, Macomb County and the state's western Lower Peninsula. The program is expected to open in 2016. Bishops, however, have expressed concern about the program. In an Oct. 24 statement, the Catholic Bishops of Michigan said the new law "calls into
